

STONEHENGE HIDDEN LANDSCAPES

Part 1 - by Eamonn Baldwin

Remote Sensing Research Fellow

The first of a pair of fascinating lectures by two leading archaeologists from this current project which recently revealed amazing new evidence in the search for the buried past of Stonehenge and the surrounding area.

What new methods did they use - and what do the results tell us about our mysterious, world-famous prehistoric monument?

Thursday 14 January 2016 at 8pm

Main Hall, Liston Hall, Liston Road, Marlow SL7 1DD

Entrance: £4 (£3 to members of AIM or MAS)

ALSO - DON'T MISS PART 2

The second lecture, by Stonehenge landscape expert PAUL GARWOOD will be at Liston Hall on THURSDAY 25 FEBRUARY at 8pm - watch for posters!

These lectures are presented jointly by

Archaeology in Marlow (AIM) & Marlow Archaeology (MAS)
