

The Marlow Society

The Upper Thames Patrol

The River Home Guard

A talk by Bill King

An examination of the role of this little known arm of the volunteer services, which protected the Thames and its banks during the Second World War

A free Zoom lecture

Tuesday, 8th June at 7.30pm

To register for the lecture, visit www.marlowsociety.org.uk/events and follow the link to fill in the form.
You will then be emailed a link to the lecture.